ELECTION OF TEACHERS

School Board Announces Appointments For Next Year.

The Lexington school board met Wednesday evening, reorganization being necessary on account of the death of Thomas J. Bandon, who had been a member for twenty-four years and at the time of his death was serving as secretary.

E. J. McGrew was elected president. This will please everyone concerned, as Mr. McGrew takes great interest in the public school and has rendered valuable service as a member of the board.

Albert Winkler was elected secretary as a recognition of his years of faithful service. Without doubt no better choice could have been made.

To fill the vacancy in membership, William J. Bandon was elected a director. The selection was particularly appropriate from the standpoint of sentiment as well as efficiency. The new member is a man of business ability, influential position and unselfish willingness to work.

The school board at its meeting Thursday night took up the election of teachers for the coming year and chose the following:

Superintendent, M. J. Patterson; Principal of High School, B. M. Little; First assistant, Miss Florence Arnold; Second assistant, Miss Nannie Shaw; Third assistant, Miss Ruth Young; Principal Central Grammar School, Miss Genevieve Russell; First assistant, Miss Edna Green; Second assistant, Miss Mary Marquis; Third assistant, Miss Mattie Kinkead. Teacher Fourth Grade, Miss Amy Berrie; Teacher Third Grade, Miss Mary Green; Teacher Second Grade, Miss Austin; Principal Taylor School, Miss Maggie Spears; assistant, Miss Virginia Shouse; Principal Arnold School, Miss Kate Drysdale; First assistant, Miss Lena Melzer; Second assistant, Miss Margaret Smith; Teacher Second Grade, Miss Sue Kinkead; Teacher First Grade, Miss Mabel Cook; Teacher in First Grade, Miss Jennie Brightwell.

First Substitute, Miss Carrie Weis; Second Substitute, Miss Agnes Wilson; Music Teacher, Miss Gladys Wynn.

Principal Douglas (Colored) school, George H. Green.

First Assistant, Sarah Graham; Second Assistant, Addie Collins; Teacher First and Second Grades, Glover Hawkins; Principal Colored School No. 2, Rosa Corder McGee; Substitute in Colored Schools, Maggie Johnson.

Summer Playgrounds, Miss Kate Drysdale, director; Geo. Weis, Jr., assistant.

Plans and specifications are being drawn up for the addition to the Arnold school and in a short time the board expects to award the contract.

Elks Overwhelmed.

The Lexington Elks, as foretold, were badly beaten by their Richmond brothers at Richmond Wednesday. The final count was 18 to 3. Jarboe Terhune started on the slab for the Lexingtonians and in the seventh the Ray people led, 6 to 2. Then Jay Gratz relieved the southpaw and made no effort to hold things down. In the eighth Richmond ran in 12.

The Richmond and Lexington lodges have a game apiece. The next set to will be over here.

Death of Wm. Puckett.

Wm. Puckett, an old resident of Lexington, was found dead in the yard at his home near the Brick yard Wednesday. Death resulted from heart disease. Mr. Puckett was 62 years old and was born and reared in this city. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Wm. McCabe and a brother, Sam Puckett. The funeral was held from the home yesterday at ten a. m. The services were conducted by Rev. Mansfield.

J. F. Loomis Leaves.

John F. Loomis left yesterday with his household goods for Billings, Montana, to prepare his new home for the coming of his family, who leave this morning. The many friends of Mr. Loomis will wish him good luck and prosperity in his new home.

Turners Elect Officers.

At the meeting of the Lexington Turner Society Thursday the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Herman Schmidt, President; Jacob Fegert, vice president; C. H. Schaefermeyer, secretary; Oswald Winkler, Treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harding returned from Kansas City Thursday evening.

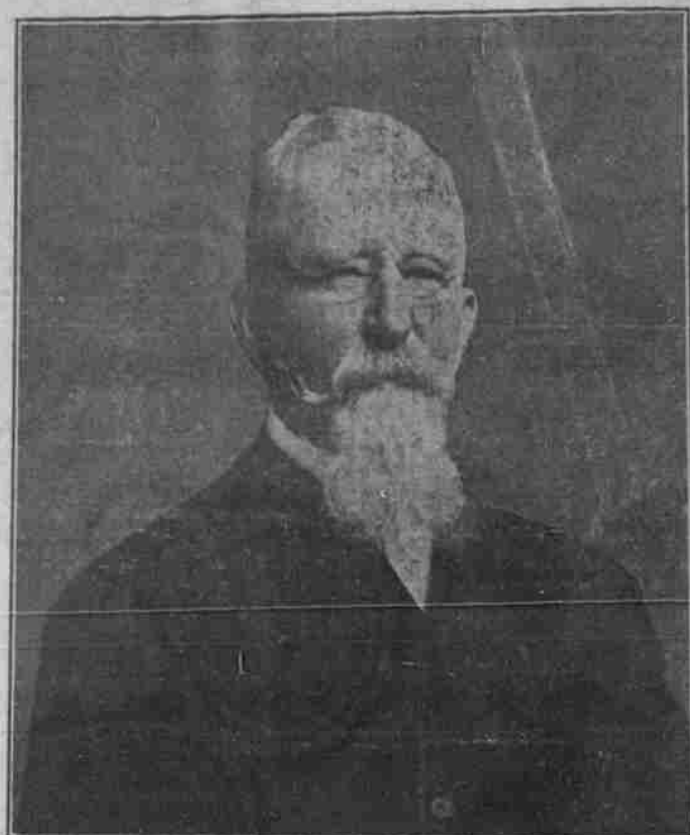

THOMAS J. BANDON

Was One of the Foremost Citizens of Lexington
For Many Years

CAME HERE IN 1868

He Died Saturday Morning at 9:10 After a Prolonged Illness—Secretary of The School Board.

Thomas J. Bandon, one of Lexington's foremost citizens, died Saturday morning at 9:10 o'clock at his home on Franklin avenue. Mr. Bandon had been in failing health for a year and his condition had been serious for two months. For the past few days Mr. Bandon had been sinking steadily and those acquainted with his condition were prepared for the worst at any time. This morning he was in the same precarious state and towards 9 o'clock he sank gradually and peacefully to death.

Thomas Jefferson Bandon was a contracting carpenter by trade and has been as closely identified with the life of Lexington—socially, religiously and in a business way—as any resident of this city. He was a pioneer builder, and has been allied with nearly every improvement of any importance undertaken since the reconstruction of Lexington after the Civil War.

Mr. Bandon was born in Montgomery county, near Dayton, Ohio, June 4, 1839, and had he lived until next Friday, would have been 70 years of age. His young manhood was spent in his native state, but at the age of 31, just after the Civil War, he came alone to Lafayette county and then to Lexington. Shortly after his arrival in this city, Mr. Bandon married Miss Julia A. Mathes, of near Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Bandon have lived in Lexington continually for the past 41 years.

Mr. Bandon occupied many positions of public trust. He was secretary of the Public School board for many years and Vice President of the Building & Loan association. He was also Past Master of the Masonic lodge, and was a deacon and treasurer in the Christian church of this city.

Mr. Bandon was one of the most sincere and upright men that ever lived. He was absolutely free from hypocrisy or cant, and fearless in stating his convictions at any time. His rugged honesty made his standing in the community peculiarly high and the confidence which his fellow citizens placed in him is attested by the various positions of trust which he held. At all times he was modest and unostentatious, and yet his many good deeds are a matter of history in the community. He will be sorely missed in the many places where his activity has been felt and his loss is widely mourned.

Besides his wife, Mr. Bandon is survived by three children, one son and two daughters. They are: Wm. J. Bandon, cashier of the Commercial bank; Mrs. Fannie L. Barron and Miss Estelle Bandon, all of this city. One brother, Hampton Bandon, who lives in Oklahoma, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Aldridge of Fairplay, Missouri, also survive.

The funeral of Mr. Bandon was held from the residence Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. R. B. Briney conducted the services at the house and the Masses performed the burial with the ritual. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in Lexington. It was attended by the Confederate Veterans, the school board and other organizations of which Mr. Bandon was a member.

Death of Allan Harwood.

Allan Harwood, one of Dover's old and most respected citizens, died from a complication of diseases at his home Saturday afternoon. He leaves a widow and three children to mourn his loss.

The funeral was held from the Christian church of Dover Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Rev. Plattenburg of Chicago preached the sermon. The Lexington lodge of Masons took charge of the body at the cemetery and burial was made with the regular ritual.

Louis Gratz of Kansas City was here Thursday.

Frank Bowman spent yesterday in Higginsville.

O. O. Wilson left yesterday for a trip to Godfrey, Illinois.

Oswald Winkler spent yesterday in Kansas City.

Gus Mayer went to Kansas City yesterday on business.

Miss Quindara Jones visited in Kansas City yesterday.

S. N. Wilson went to Higginsville yesterday to spend the day.

Rev. A. F. Smith and daughter, Mildred, of Tulsa, Okla., arrived Thursday evening for a stay of several days in this city.

Miss Jennie Brightwell went to Lawrence, Kansas, yesterday to spend the summer.

Mrs. S. N. Wilson, daughter, Miss Katherine, and Miss Anna Wood Eggleston spent yesterday in Kansas City.

Mrs. J. B. Silver returned to her home in Kansas City Thursday evening after a visit with relatives in this city.

Miss Katharine Wilson, who has been attending school in Warrensburg this winter, returned home Tuesday evening.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION.

Chicago's Greatest Amusement-Entertainment prize Completed at a Cost of $5,000,000.

None of Chicago's other marvelous achievements equal the great amusement enterprise it has just launched, RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION.

This exposition surpasses everything of its character since the original World's Fair. Five million dollars was expended to make it a crowning gem in Chicago's coronet of beautiful parks. Last season 7,500,000 persons visited the exposition. This year it will accommodate 10,000,000. A trip to Chicago would be incomplete without a visit there.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION surpasses Caesar's ancient Circus Maximus where 5,000 dancers entertained Rome. Five thousand dancers could be lost in any one of its courts, esplanades, causeways or wooded groves. That many show girls, trick riders, Indians and cowboys are used in its "Frontier Day Fete" alone.

Twice as many are accommodated in the amphitheater, where Mexican bull fights occur. Wild bulls and daring Toreros daily enact thrilling contests for life and death. A Spanish band of 100 pieces discourses national music. Many military bands render open air concerts. The industrial exhibit includes wireless telegraphy, flying machines, dirigible balloons, aeroplanes and other mechanical marvels.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION'S matchless attraction is "The Creation." This stupendous scenic spectacle, animated by Biblical characters of the Garden of Eden, is destined to attract world-wide attention. It is the product of the genius of E. W. McConnell, builder of several world's fairs, and his staff of a hundred artists.

The scene is the Valley of the Euphrates, where tradition locates Eden. Awe-struck spectators stand near to its reproduction as man may conceive. The great religious drama closely follows the Scripture.

"There is first a void, then darkness, dawn and light; separation of the sky, the earth and the waters; the beginning of life in the air and the waters, birds and fishes, creeping and crawling things, celestial armies of angelic spirits; the creation of Adam and Eve, their temptation, transgression and expulsion by Angel Gabriel, who drives them forth with a flaming sword."

A great $25,000 pipe organ intones appropriate music. Its deep tones produce thunder, and its flute-like notes the murmur of forest, small life. Flashes of lightning and angry storms are made by electrical and water effects. Space forbids an adequate description of this magnificent spectacle.

Another great novelty is "The Races," an English panorama. Fifty horses attached to chaises raise over the highway to Coventry.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION'S "Court of Honor" has never been equaled since the Ancient Hanging Gardens of Babylon. Its center is a lagoon of crystal water, through which flash myriads of silver and gold fish. The limpid eddies are fringed with emerald lawn set in rows of stately, stately poplars. Cascade fountains play prismatic sprays high overhead and cooling mists float downward into the lagoon. Fantastic facades and white pavilions gleam through the trees at a marble setting for the beautiful landscape.

"Over Niagara Falls" reproduces on a mammoth scale the famous waterfall.

The inspiring strains of great bands, softer tones of orchestras, sounds of merriment from joyous throngs, sunlit waters and forests, gay show-places, the whirl of aerial cars and flying machines, whistles of miniature railroads, vocalization of the animals of "Circle D Ranch," chanting Indians, the fanfare of "rooting" enthusiasts in the baseball park, the silent onward movement of the river that courses through the great park and millions of activities that impart pleasure, mystery and delight make RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION a place of magic, the like of which the world has never seen.
